

What is the TASC™ Test?

West Virginians who have not completed high school can earn a State of West Virginia High School Equivalency Diploma, by passing the five TASC™ content area tests:

Language Arts, Writing
Social Studies
Science

Language Arts, Reading
Mathematics

Sample questions for the TASC™ Tests may be found by visiting the Test Assessing Secondary Completion and PBS Literacy

If you are withdrawn from school and are at least 16 years of age you can enroll in the Adult Education Program located at the Gaston Caperton Center of Pierpont Community and Technical School located in downtown Clarksburg. There you can prepare to pass the TASC Readiness Assessment (TRA) and complete the TASC online registration process.

Do not complete the TASC online registration process without passing the TRA or without the assistance of an Adult Education Teacher.
