

TASC Test – West Virginia’s High School Equivalency Test

West Virginians who have not completed high school can earn a High School Equivalency Diploma, by passing five TASC content area tests:

Language Arts
Writing
Reading
Social Studies
Mathematics
Science

If you are withdrawn from school and are at least 16 years of age you can enroll in the Adult Education Program located at Pierpont Community and Technical School in downtown Clarksburg. The Adult Education Teacher will help you prepare to pass the TASC Test. There is no cost for the TASC, however, you must pass the TASC Readiness Assessment (TRA) prior to taking the TASC.

The TASC test is given at United High School - 1349 Shinnston Pike, Clarksburg. The testing schedule for 2017-2018 is:

September 20, 2017
November 15, 2017
December 20, 2017
January 17, 2018
February 21, 2018
March 21, 2018
April 18, 2018
May 16, 2018
June 13, 2018

Special testing accommodations may be provided on the TASC for testers with documented needs to meet the requirements of the IDEA Amendments Act of 2008.
